Non-Use Conflict Minerals Statement

DAJ ENTERPRISE CO.,LTD.

Reported by EICC(Electronic Industry Citizenship Coalition) and GeSI(Global e-Sustainability Initiative), that the conflict minerals has become the Democratic Republic of Congo armed rebel groups main revenue sources , including the purchase in arms. Cause each other bloody conflicts , persecution and killing of local civilian population, thus triggering international controversy.

SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission) is also response to the president Obama signed the “Dodd - Frank Act” (Dodd Frank Wall street Reform and Consumer Protection Act) in AD August 2012 , and setting decree. Requires the products of the manufacturing process from 2013 onwards confirm whether using Conflict minerals. If they contain it , must be declare.

Conflict minerals : The minerals composed of columbite-tantalite, cassiterite, wolframite and gold from the fighting region of Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC). These minerals are refined into tantalum (Ta), tin (Sn), tungsten (W) (referred to as the 3 T's), cobalt (Co) and gold (Au), respectively, and are used in electronics and other products. In the near future, the metals produced by some smelters may be banned, therefore all of our key suppliers are required to map their supply chains for the source of metals in their components back down to smelter.

We warrant that all products of Company to DAJ Enterprise and packaging thereof do not contain conflict minerals from Congo and its neighboring counties or any armed-conflict areas within the geographic territories of these countries.

Congo and its neighboring countries (hereinafter “Conflict Regions”) comprise :

- I .République démocratique du Congo, The Republic of Congo, The Republic of Sudan, Republic of South Sudan, The Republic of Uganda, Republika y'u Rwanda, The Republic of Burundi, The United Republic of Tanzania, The Republic of Zambia, The Republic of Angola, The Central African Republic.
- II .Any current or future country/region that includes a part of or all territories of the foregoing countries.
